SAVANNAH, Ga. - Armstrong Atlantic State University sophomores Aleksandra Filipovski and Barbora Krtickova captured the ITA Southeast Region doubles title on Tuesday, beating teammates Kathleen Henry and Clara Perez, 8-4, at the Armstrong Tennis Complex on Tuesday afternoon.

The top seed in the doubles draw, Filipovski and Krtickova will now advance to the ITA Small College National Championships in Mobile, Ala., on Oct. 13-16. Krtickova had already advanced by virtue of her region singles title on Monday.

Krtickova was a part of last year's region championship duo, teaming with departed senior Alida Muller-Wehlau to not only capture the ITA DII doubles title, but the ITA "Super Bowl" doubles title as well as the consolation bracket of the ITA National Indoor Championships in 2010.

The Pirates will have three of the four representatives at the ITA Small College National Championships after also winning the men's doubles title on Monday with Matus Mydla and Pedro Scocuglia.
